1.5. Authorized Users. The Software shall be used solely by employees, independent contractors and third-party service providers of Licensee authorized by Licensee to use the Software under the rights granted pursuant to this Agreement, solely for Licensee's business purposes, and for which all applicable fees have been paid ("Authorized Users"). Licensee shall cause all Authorized Users to comply with Licensee's obligations under this Agreement and shall be responsible for any noncompliance with such obligations by any Authorized User.

1.6. Licensee Responsibilities. 2.2. Subscription Term. The initial subscription term of the Software shall be as specified in the applicable Subscription Form and shall commence on the date on which the Software is made available to Licensee. Subscriptions shall renew automatically for additional terms equal in duration to the expiring subscription term, unless either party gives the other party written notice of its intent not to renew the term at least thirty (30) days prior to the expiration of the then-current term (the initial subscription term and each renewal subscription period, collectively, the "Subscription Term").

2.3. Termination. Either party may, at its option and without further notice, immediately terminate this Agreement and the licenses granted hereunder if the other party: (a) breaches any material obligation under this Agreement and such breach is not cured within thirty (30) days after the receipt of written notice of the alleged breach; (b) admits in writing its inability to pay its debts generally as they become due; (c) makes a general assignment for the benefit of creditors; (d) institutes proceedings to be adjudicated a voluntary bankrupt, or consents to the filing of a petition of bankruptcy against it; (e) is adjudicated by a court of competent jurisdiction as being bankrupt or insolvent; (f) seeks reorganization under any bankruptcy act, or consents to the filing of a petition seeking such reorganization; or (g) ceases to do business as itself or through a successor.

2.4. Effect of Termination. Upon the effective date of termination of this Agreement, all licenses granted hereunder shall terminate, and Licensee shall immediately cease any and all use of the Software and deinstall all instances of Software installed in Licensee's environment. Within ninety (90) days of termination, Immuta will destroy all instances of Licensee Data. The terms of Sections 2-5, 8 and 10-12 shall survive termination or expiration of this Agreement.

3. FEES AND PAYMENT TERMS

3.1. The Fees are listed on the Subscription Form. Fees shall be due and payable annually in advance unless otherwise stated on the Subscription Form, net thirty (30) days after the invoice date. Immuta will invoice Licensee upon commencement of the Subscription Term. All fees and charges hereunder are exclusive of all federal, state, municipal, and other governmental excise, sales, use, customs, value-added, and other taxes and import fees or duties now in force or enacted in the future. Licensee agrees to pay on or before their due date all such taxes, fees, duties and charges which arise out of or in connection with this Agreement or any license granted herein, but excluding taxes based on Immuta's net income. In the event Licensee purchases the Software from an authorized reseller of Immuta, then pricing, payment, delivery, and related terms will be agreed between Licensee and the reseller.

3.2. In the event of any overdue payments, Immuta reserves the right to charge interest from the due date at the lesser of the rate of one percent (1%) per month (or the maximum rate permitted by law) and/or to suspend Licensee's access to the Software. All costs of collection, including reasonable attorneys' fees, shall be paid by Licensee. Unless otherwise specifically provided in this Agreement, all fees are non-refundable.

3.3. Immuta reserves the right to increase the applicable subscription fee by no more than six (6%) percent for each renewal term, provided notice of any such increase is provided to Licensee no later than sixty (60) days prior to the expiration of the then-current Subscription Term. In the event that Licensee increases the number of units used by Licensee during the Subscription Term, Immuta may invoice Licensee for an amount equal to the annual subscription fee per unit multiplied by the increased number of units (prorated, as necessary).

Without limiting the foregoing, (a) Immuta acknowledges and agrees that Licensee Data are Confidential Information of Licensee, and (b) Licensee acknowledges and agrees that the Software, Documentation, Usage Data, and statistical performance results of any evaluation or benchmark tests run on the Software by or on behalf of either Licensee or Immuta are Confidential Information of Immuta.

Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, each party may freely use any feedback, suggestions or ideas which the other party provides to improve such party's products and services.

8.4. The obligations of non-disclosure set forth above shall not apply to the extent that a party is legally required to produce Confidential Information pursuant to a subpoena or other legal process or order of a court of competent jurisdiction, provided that such party provides prompt written notice to the other party of such process or order and produces only that portion of the applicable Confidential Information legally required under such process or order after the other party has had an opportunity to challenge such process or order.

11. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

EXCEPT WITH RESPECT TO THE PARTIES' INDEMNIFICATION OBLIGATIONS, CONFIDENTIALITY VIOLATIONS, LICENSEE'S OBLIGATION TO PAY ANY AMOUNTS OWED HEREUNDER, OR A PARTY'S LIABILITY FOR INFRINGEMENT OR MISAPPROPRIATION OF THE OTHER PARTY'S INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY, IN NO EVENT SHALL EITHER PARTY'S AGGREGATE LIABILITY UNDER THIS AGREEMENT DURING ANY CONTRACT YEAR EXCEED THE FEES PAID TO IMMUTA BY LICENSEE DURING SUCH CONTRACT YEAR. IN NO EVENT SHALL EITHER PARTY BE LIABLE FOR ANY LOST OR ANTICIPATED REVENUE OR PROFITS OR EXPECTED SAVINGS, LOST DATA, DIMINUTION OF VALUE OR LOSS OF GOODWILL, OR FOR ANY INCIDENTAL, PUNITIVE, EXEMPLARY, SPECIAL, INDIRECT OR CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGES, SUCH AS CLAIMS OF THIRD PARTIES, REGARDLESS OF WHETHER IT WAS ADVISED OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH DAMAGES.

12. INDEMNIFICATION

12.1. Immuta shall defend Licensee against any claim or action brought against Licensee, and will indemnify and hold harmless Licensee from and against any damages, liabilities, costs or expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees) awarded by a final judgment of a court or included as part of a final settlement, to the extent based upon the infringement by the Software of any United States patent, trademark or copyright of a third party ("Claims"), provided that (a) Immuta is promptly notified in writing of any Claim, (b) Immuta has sole control over the defense and/or settlement of the Claim, and (c) Licensee gives Immuta all available information and assistance (at Immuta's expense) to enable Immuta to do so.

12.2. In addition, if, as the result of any Claim, Licensee is enjoined from using the Software, Immuta, at its sole option and expense, may: (a) procure the right for Licensee to continue to use the Software; (b) replace or modify the Software so as to make them non-infringing (without materially impacting functionality or performance); or (c) if Immuta is not able to accomplish either of the foregoing alternatives on commercially reasonable terms, terminate Licensee's license to the Software and refund to Licensee that portion of the fee prepaid for the then-current Subscription Term which reflects the unused portion of such Subscription Term.

12.3. The foregoing indemnity shall not apply if the Claim results from: (a) Software that has been modified by anyone other than Immuta or its subcontractors; (b) Licensee's use of the Software with software, hardware, data or services not provided by Immuta; (c) misuse of the Software or other breach of this Agreement; (d) use of other than the most current, unaltered corrections and updates to the Software which have been provided to Licensee at no additional charge; or (e) compliance by Immuta with designs, plans or specifications furnished by or on Licensee's behalf. Immuta shall not be liable hereunder for any settlement made by Licensee without Immuta's advance written approval. Licensee will indemnify, defend and hold harmless Immuta from and against any Claims brought against Immuta arising out the circumstances described in this paragraph or in connection with Licensee Data.

12.4. THE FOREGOING STATES THE ENTIRE LIABILITY OF IMMUTA WITH RESPECT TO ANY THIRD PARTY INFRINGEMENT CLAIMS.

The parties agree that the United Nations Convention on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods shall not apply to this Agreement.

13.5. Export Laws. Neither party shall commit any act or request the other party to commit any act which would violate the export control laws, rules or regulations of the United States or any other country.

13.7. Severability. If any provision of this Agreement is held by a court of competent jurisdiction to be contrary to law, such provision shall be changed and interpreted so as to best accomplish the objectives of the original provision to the fullest extent allowed by law and the remaining provisions of this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect.

Neither party may assign this Agreement without the other party's prior written consent, except (a) to an affiliate, (b) in the event of a merger or the sale of all or substantially all of such party's assets or stock, or (c) in the case of an assignment by Immuta of monies due or becoming due. In any such event, any assignee shall comply with all of the terms and conditions of this Agreement.

13.9. Independent Contractors. The parties are independent contractors, and this Agreement will not establish any relationship of partnership, joint venture, employment, franchise, or agency between the parties.

13.10. Trial Deployments. In the event Licensee conducts a proof-of-concept, trial or other test of the Software, Licensee agrees that its use of the Software will be limited to evaluation purposes only (and not for any commercial or production use) for the agreed upon period. In such cases, the Software is provided as-is, with all faults, with no warranties or representations (express or implied) whatsoever, and the service levels in Exhibit A shall not apply. Immuta shall have no liability whatsoever in connection with such activities.

13.11. Entire Agreement. This Agreement and any Exhibits hereto, together with the Support Policy and any Subscription Forms, contain the entire understanding and agreement between Licensee and Immuta and supersede all prior agreements or understandings, oral or written, relating to the subject matter hereof. ## EXHIBIT A SERVICE LEVELS

The following applies to Software provided by Immuta as software-as-a-service solution in a production environment:

1. Software Availability. Immuta will use commercially reasonable efforts to provide 99.9% Service Availability. Service Availability will be calculated on a monthly basis using the following formula: Actual Availability divided by Expected Availability (expressed as a percentage).

2. Definitions. The following definitions will apply with respect to the calculation of Service Availability:

- (a) “Actual Availability” means (in minutes) Expected Availability minus Unpermitted Downtime.
- (b) “Expected Availability” means (in minutes) seven (7) days per week, twenty-four (24) hours per day.
- (c) “Downtime” means the time (in minutes) that users of the Software are not able to access the Software due to failure, malfunction or delay.
- (d) “Permitted Downtime” includes Downtime relating to (i) Maintenance, (ii) the facilities, infrastructure, network, products or services of Licensee (or any supplier, subcontractor or representative of Licensee), (iii) the acts, omissions, products or services of a third party, (iv) the negligence, willful misconduct or breach of this Agreement by Licensee, or (v) any other cause not within Immuta’s reasonable control.
- (e) “Unpermitted Downtime” means Downtime minus Permitted Downtime.
- (f) “Maintenance” means time (in minutes) that the Software is not accessible to Licensee due to maintenance of the Software, including maintenance and upgrading of the Software and hardware used by Immuta to provide the Software. Maintenance includes scheduled maintenance and unscheduled or emergency maintenance. For any maintenance expected to cause more than momentary Downtime, Immuta will use commercially reasonable efforts to provide Licensee with at least two business days’ prior notice of any scheduled maintenance or sixty minutes’ advance written notice for unscheduled, emergency maintenance. Immuta will provide such notice to Licensee by email to an address provided by Licensee. Maintenance in any given month will not exceed eight (8) hours per month. Any time during which the Software is unavailable to Licensee due to maintenance or other activity by Immuta for which Immuta fails to give notice, which exceeds the permitted time allotment, or which occurs outside of the foregoing permitted hours will be included in the calculation of Downtime. For any maintenance expected to cause more than momentary Downtime, Immuta will use commercially reasonable efforts to schedule all scheduled maintenance windows beginning at 8:00 p.m. Eastern Time or starting between 8:00 p.m. Eastern Time Friday and concluding prior to end of day Sunday Eastern Time.
